Vocalist
Bandleader

WHO IS SASHA TUCK?

Sasha Tuck is an up and coming vocalist on the DFW jazz scene.

With a distinctive conversational style, extensive knowledge of the Great American Songbook, and her connections with the superlative musicians from the University of North Texas's world renowned Jazz Studies program, she will add a touch of class to any event.

Sasha has extensive vocal training in jazz, classical, Broadway, and contemporary styles making her an excellent choice for your event. She will also tailor the band to fit your needs with options ranging from a simple duo, trio, or a rhythm section with horns to complete your event, night club, restaurant, corporate outing or other venue.

YOU AND THE NIGHT AND THE MUSIC

Sasha's vocal stylings are heavily influenced by the finest vocalists to ever address the Great American Songbook including Ella Fitzgerald, Louis Armstrong, Billie Holiday, Frank Sinatra, Carmen McCrae, Betty Carter, Mark Murphy and Kurt Elling. She also draws on the excellent musicians that work with her at each event. The coupling of these giants of song with Sasha's own personal touch will make your event a night to remember.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"Sasha has a voice that makes her sound twice her age... it is so sophisticated and nuanced"

-Joyce Y.

"A voice like sunshine on summer satin!"

-Damon S.

"Not biased at all. Just truth. She's really good"

-Joye J.
